The narratives

Through the three narratives: life, change and careers

– we tell the story of what it's like to work at Novo Nordisk.

life

Our purpose

We are a global healthcare company and life is our reason to exist. This is why we're all here, to ensure people can lead a life independent of serious chronic diseases – millions rely on us. Inspired by life in all its forms and shapes, ups and downs, opportunities and challenges.

All those moments that matter.

change

Our motivator

Change is everywhere – change in lifestyle, change in technology, change all over. We don't wait for change, we drive change – to help patients around the world who are living with serious chronic diseases. It's about every moment.

Not later. Not tomorrow. Now.

Our people

We are our people, and the mission we share together. Our forward-thinking delivers opportunities to realize your potential. This is your moment. Here we don't stand still, we never give up – we make an impact. We're trusted to have the courage. Together we make it happen.

All those moments that matter.
